What our clients say

''I had such a fantastic experience working with Raluca at Luca's Cakes for my Christmas corporate gifts.
Raluca invited me in for a personalised session where we could sit down and go through everything together. I never felt rushed at any point. It felt like we had the time and space to properly explore the ideas. I wanted each gift to feel special and individual for my clients rather than just sending something generic, and Raluca completely understood that.
She walked me through all the different options and it honestly felt like there were so many creative possibilities. What I loved most was how excited she got about the ideas with me. It felt very collaborative and she really helped bring the concept to life. Every detail was beautifully thought through and completely on brand.
The final gifts looked incredible and my clients absolutely loved them.
